Help us shine our light at SVMS!

If you don't already follow us on Facebook and Instagram, now is the perfect time.

In a special series titled "Faces of SVMS," your peers are sharing personal experiences and photos that, together, tell a moving story about what it means to belong to the SVMS family. Over the coming weeks, we invite you to follow along and to be inspired by your peers, to feel gratitude for our faculty, and to revel in the accomplishments of our alumni. We can't wait to spread the word about all the beautiful lights shining at SVMS!

Take a look at #FacesOfSVMS when you have a moment and help us by:

- Following us on Facebook (St. Vincent Martyr School) and Instagram (@svmsnj)
- Liking or commenting on our posts and sharing them with others
- Letting us know when you hear of a special #FacesOfSVMS story you'd like us to feature

Alternatively, follow our stories directly through our website at www.svmsnj.org/facesofsvms and as always, thank you for your support!
